A. AND M. FOOTBALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Farmer's Game V. P. L. November 14. Games With Navy and Georgetown Also on Card.

RALEIGH, N. C., September 9.—With the arrival of Coach Hickey to-day, interest in football at Agricultural and Mechanical College sprang up. Responding to his call, forty determined men came out this afternoon, as candidates for the team. All the men went to work with a determination to duplicate the record of the Red and White team of last year. This afternoon's practice on Riddick Athletic Field consisted only of light work, such as falling on the ball and running down punts.

The Farmers have a splendid foundation on which to build this year's team. On the field today were Tenny, South Atlantic fullback last year; Kiddick and Van Brocklin in the backfield. The new men of last year's varsity were McDougall, Anthony, Seibert and Cook. Player, captain and center for this year, is expected to arrive to-night. There are a number of last year's scrub men back, and some varsity material ought to be gotten from them. It is too early yet to get a line on the new men, but from appearances they are a promising looking bunch.

Manager W. B. Setzer announces the following games:

October 3—Wake Forest College at Raleigh.

October 10—Maryville College at Raleigh.

October 22—University of West Virginia at Raleigh.

October 31—Navy at Annapolis.

November 7—Georgetown at Washington.

November 14—V. P. L. at Richmond.

November 21—Virginia Medical College at Raleigh.

November 28—Washington and Lee at Lexington.

From the above schedule it will be seen the Agricultural and Mechanical College has a very busy season ahead. It is again this year for the first time in three years.

There is another hard team that the Agricultural and Mechanical team tackles this year that was not on its last year's list.

Gossip of the Boxers

NEW YORK, September 9.—Al Britton, Staten Island's crack welterweight, and Red Haddock, New York's champion, are expected to meet in a return engagement at the Olympic Athletic Club next Monday night. Britton is the boy who fought Alvin Karpis in a slashing round at the Atlas Athletic Association of Boston recently.

J. Kornhausen, former 125-pound amateur champion of the West, has reached his home in Cleveland. He is looking for bouts.

Johnny (Kid) Albert and young Tack are scheduled for a ten-round bout at the Irving Athletic Club Saturday night.

TEN THOUSAND ATTEND FAIR AT WINCHESTER

Six races on card, one of which went over until to-day.

WINCHESTER, Va., September 9.—Favored by clear and bright weather, and plenty of sunshine, along with exhibits, the like of which was never seen here before, the first day of the forty-fifth annual Winchester fair closed to-day.
